

American Mountain Guides Association (AMGA) Compliance

The American Mountain Guides Association (AMGA) Does Not Discriminate

In accordance with Federal law and U.S. government policy, the AMGA is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs).

The U.S. Forest Service is an equal opportunity provider and employer. To file a complaint of discrimination in National Forest Lands, write to:

USDA, Director, Office of Civil Rights
Room 326-W, Whitten Building
1400 Independence Avenue, SW
Washington, D.C. 20250-9410
or call (202) 720-5964 (voice and TDD).

The National Park Service is an equal opportunity provider and employer. To file a complaint of discrimination in the National Parks, write to:

U.S. Department of the Interior
National Park Service
Office of Equal Opportunity
1201 I Street, NW
Washington, DC 20005
or call:
(202) 354-1852,
Fax: (202) 321-1449

The AMGA operates in partnership with the following land managers:

The AMGA is an authorized permittee of the US National Park Service in the Black Canyon of the Gunnison, Joshua Tree, North Cascades and Rocky Mountain National Parks.

The AMGA is an authorized permittee of the United States Forest Service in Monongahela, Mount Baker-Snoqualmie, Pisgah, San Juan, and the Uinta-Wasatch-Cache National Forests.

The AMGA is an authorized permittee of the United States Bureau of Land Management in Red Rock Canyon National Recreation Area and Prineville BLM lands in Oregon.

In Canada, the AMGA is an authorized permittee of Alberta and BC Provincial Parks, and Parks Canada National Park.

In Colorado, the AMGA is an authorized permittee of Boulder County OSMP and Eldorado Canyon State Park.

In Alaska, the AMGA is an authorized permittee of the State of Alaska, Department of Natural Resources—division of mining, land and water.