

2017 ARC'TERYX & AMGA ALPINE DISCIPLINE MENTORSHIP CAMP

The AMGA, in partnership with Arc'teryx, is proud to announce an exciting mentorship opportunity for current Apprentice Alpine Guide members. The Alpine Discipline Mentorship Camp will allow 2 Apprentice Alpine members to develop their guiding skills, work with an Instructor Team member and experienced peer, and prepare for their Advanced Alpine Guide Course & Aspirant Exam.

On August 23 & 24, the AMGA will invite 2 members to Mazama, WA to participate in the 2017 Alpine Discipline Mentorship Camp.

WHAT

The Alpine Discipline Mentorship Camp will provide:

- 2 days of alpine discipline specific training at a 2:1 ratio at Washington Pass on August 23 & 24, 2017 (In partnership with North Cascades Mountain Guides)
- Opportunity to work closely with an AMGA Instructor Team member and peer going through the alpine discipline
- Practice for skills learned on previous AMGA program(s), implementation of new techniques, and discussion opportunities for how to move forward in your guiding career

COST

There is no charge for the mentorship camp and attendees will be awarded:

- Travel stipend of up to $650.00 – attendees are responsible for all costs beyond this stipend

ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible for this camp, members must:

- Have a current AMGA Professional Membership
- Be at the Apprentice Alpine Guide level (successfully completed the Alpine Guide Course)

HOW TO APPLY

- Complete the application form by June 23, 2017
- Please limit each response to 250 words or less

OTHER DETAILS

- To be selected, applicants need to submit an application that demonstrates future goals and a genuine interest to learn and improve as a guide
- Applications must be received by June 23, 2017
- Invitations to attend the mentorship camp will be sent out by July 7, 2017
- Selected applicants will agree to submit a co-created 3-5 minute video and applicable write up following the camp that can be used by the AMGA and Arc'teryx in future marketing and branding material.
- The Alpine Discipline Mentorship Camp is made possible by the generous support of Arc'teryx