

2017 EDDIE BAUER & AMGA ROCK DISCIPLINE MENTORSHIP CAMP

The AMGA, in partnership with Eddie Bauer, is proud to announce an exciting mentorship opportunity for current Assistant Rock Guide members. The Rock Discipline Mentorship Camp will allow 2 Assistant Rock members to develop their guiding skills, work with an Instructor Team member and experienced peer, and prepare for their Rock Guide Exam.

On September 6 & 7, the AMGA will invite 2 members to Boulder, CO to participate in the 2017 Rock Discipline Mentorship Camp.

WHAT

The Rock Discipline Mentorship Camp will provide:

- 2 days of rock discipline specific training at a 2:1 ratio in Boulder, CO on September 6 & 7, 2017
- Opportunity to work closely with an AMGA Instructor Team member and peer going through the rock discipline
- Practice for skills learned on previous AMGA program(s), implementation of new techniques, and discussion opportunities for how to move forward in your guiding career

COST

There is no charge for the mentorship camp and attendees will be awarded:

- Travel stipend of up to $650.00 – attendees are responsible for all costs beyond this stipend
- Three nights of lodging at the Boulder Adventure Lodge (evenings of September 5, 6 & 7)

ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible for this camp, members must:

- Have a current AMGA Professional Membership
- Be at the Assistant Rock Guide level (completed the Advanced Rock Guide Course & Aspirant Exam)

HOW TO APPLY

- Complete the application form by June 23, 2017
- Please limit responses to 250 words or less

OTHER DETAILS

- To be selected, applicants need to submit an application that demonstrates future goals and a genuine interest to learn and improve as a guide
- Applications must be received by June 23, 2017
- Invitations to attend the mentorship camp will be sent out by July 7, 2017
- Selected applicants will agree to submit a co-created 3-5 minute video and applicable write up following the camp that can be used by the AMGA and Eddie Bauer in future marketing and branding material.
- The Rock Discipline Mentorship Camp is made possible by the generous support of Eddie Bauer
- Lodging for camp attendees is generously donated by Boulder Adventure Lodge